In the Name of Allah, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate

Decree of H. E. Amirul Momineen (May Allah protect him) on not giving lands without the permission of the leadership

No. (8)

Date: 17/03/1443 – 23 October 2021

No one can give land to private ownership without the leadership's permission. Mabsut Sarkhasi wrote:

Translation: the land that a specific person does not own, the Amir (general only) has the authority to give it to private ownership; because that which all Muslims share falls under the authority of the Amir (General). Based on necessity and expediency, he can give it to the property of one person (from the Islamic community), the same as he takes possession of the public treasury (that gives a portion of it to one person based on expediency).

Wa Salaam,

Amirul Momineen Shaikh-ul-Quran Wa Al-Hadith
