Decree of H.E. Amirul Momineen (May Allah protect him) on the abolition of general fronts

No. (124 J6)

Date: 05/06/1442 – 18/January/2021

To all Islamic Emirate officials

Peace, mercy, and blessings of Allah be upon you all.

I order all officials that should any governor or official currently oversee a squadron or an active group operating outside their jurisdiction, they are hereby instructed to introduce the relevant Mujahideen and their squad to the respective province's official. These Mujahideen must adhere to the directives of that province's governor and seek guidance for their operations. Provincial officials are mandated to supply them in a manner consistent with other Mujahideen within their territory. Within the structural framework of the Islamic Emirate, the existence of general fronts is expressly forbidden. Such fronts are not recognized or sanctioned.

Our strict order is for all officials to refrain from affiliating squads from other provinces to their authority. Any squad presently linked to an individual in another province must henceforth become independent.

Wa Salaam,

Amirul Momineen Shaikh-ul-Quran Wa Al-Hadith
