The promotion of Virtue does not include restricting society and taking away the rights of the people.

July 26, 2022 - 1443/12/27

Officials of the Promotion of Virtue in Paktia Province have told the people that the promotion of Virtue does not limit the society or take away the rights of the people from them, but every measure and restriction is to prevent vices and reform the society. In addition to Gardiz, the center of this province, they also addressed the people and the government employees in some districts. They persuaded them to listen to the order of the Ministry of Promotion of Virtue and guided them to reform society.

The preachers told the residents of Zazai Ariob, Ahmad Khel, and Zarmat districts, including the center of this province, that it is not for detaining and imprisoning people. They said: "Our effort is to stop evil in the society and the people of the society to live in peace and comfort."

At the same time, the preachers of the mentioned districts of the province asked the government employees to carry out their assigned duties transparently so that people's problems are dealt with, and they adhere to the promises made.

They also asked the local people to support the regime and apply the laws and regulations of this ministry in the community. People assured him of help and praised the ministry's activities.
