Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan

S/No: 450

Spokesman's Office Date: October 20, 2022 -

The decree of the Supreme Leader, Amir al-Mominin was issued regarding the law of the prevention of land arrogation and the return of arrogated lands, its commission, the commission's procedure, and a specialized court.

His Highness Amir al-Mominin signed a law on the prevention of land expropriation and the return of arrogated lands in (4) chapters and (12) articles. Besides, His Highness, Amir al-Mominin approved the procedure of the restoration committee in (9) articles. In the past, the Emirate (Sultani), public pasture, and dedicated lands have been expropriated by individuals and powerful people. The return of and prevention of the arrogation of public lands and dedicated lands are the duties of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan. The Supreme Leader, Amir al-Mominin approved the composition of the commission for the prevention of land expropriation and the return of arrogated lands as follows.

1. The Minister of Justice, as the head of the commission.
2. Minister of Agriculture, Irrigation, and Livestock, as a member.
3. Minister of Urban Development, as a member.
4. Minister of Labor and Social Affairs, as a member.
5. Attorney General, as a member.

Furthermore, in the first article of this decree, the responsible commission is obliged to act according to the rules and regulations of the prevention of land expropriation and the return of arrogated lands. Also, in the third article of this decree, in addition to the said commission, a specialized court with the following composition is established to deal with cases related to the said matter and to issue Sharia decisions in this regard.

- 1 Shaikh al-Hadith Mawlawi Abdul Ghaffar; As the Head of the Special Court.
- 2 Qazi Muhammad Sadiq; as judge.
- 3 Mufti Muhammad Tahir; as Mufti.
- 4 Mawlawi Siddiq Ullah Mashal; as secretariat.
