Decree of the Amirul Momineen on Preventing the Usurpation of Emirates Lands

No. 4

Date: September 22, 2021

Since in the past two decades, the usurpation of Emirate land was a frequent occurrence under the proxy government and this, among other disorders, allowed the usurpers to exploit circumstances to perpetuate their illicit activities. With the introduction of the Sharia system by the Islamic Emirate, it falls upon us to deter any form of land usurpation. Consequently, all provincial governors are mandated to enforce a stringent prohibition against the usurpation of Emirate lands, and to ensure that the usurpers are handed over to the jurisdiction of Sharia law.
