Decree

The Supreme Leader of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan Sheikh Hebatullah Akhundzadeh (May Allah protect him)

Date: Mar 20, 2022

The decree from the Supreme Leader of the Islamic Emirate (Amir al-Mu'minin) on the Termination of Appointments for Sons of Certain Officials:

The Supreme Leader of the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan, Sheikh al-Hadith Maulavi Hebatullah Akhundzadeh, has issued a decree to terminate the appointments of sons of Emirate officials assigned to government positions.

According to Decree No. 30, dated March 17, 2022 (13/08/1443 AH), all ministry and independent directorate officials are instructed to refrain from employing individuals based on familial ties or personal relationships.

The decree mandates that all sons of Emirate officials who have appointed one or more of their sons within entities under their authority will have their appointments terminated following the announcement of this decree. These officials must nominate other candidates to replace them.
